FOREWORD

The elements of the beach can be said to represent the students of Mission Bay. The sand symbolizes the sophomores who are beginning their high school life. The juniors are seen in the turbulence of the ever-changing tide, having the urge to move on. The seniors are reflected in the sun, being at their highest point of high school, but slowly moving out of sight. Through this, the three phases of high school are illustrated in TAROGA '68.

DEDICATION

The Taroga of 1968 is dedicated to Mission Bay's outstanding drama coach, Mrs. Geri Davis. Mrs. Davis is well known in her field; her patience and efforts repeatedly result in fine performances from her students. Mission Bay owes much to the wonderful entertainment of the drama department. This dedication is a small tribute to Mrs. Davis for devotion and time given to her students.

A drama student . . . dramatizing???!!

ADMINISTRATION

Graduates of June, 1967

We have done our best and now it's up to you! Are you ready? We think that you are!

You have had educational opportunities far beyond those made available to your parents' generation, or any previous generation for that matter. You have worked with a talented, sincere, and dedicated faculty who, in terms of their professional goals, held your interests and welfare above all. The true test of the training that you have received will be made in the immediate months and years to come.

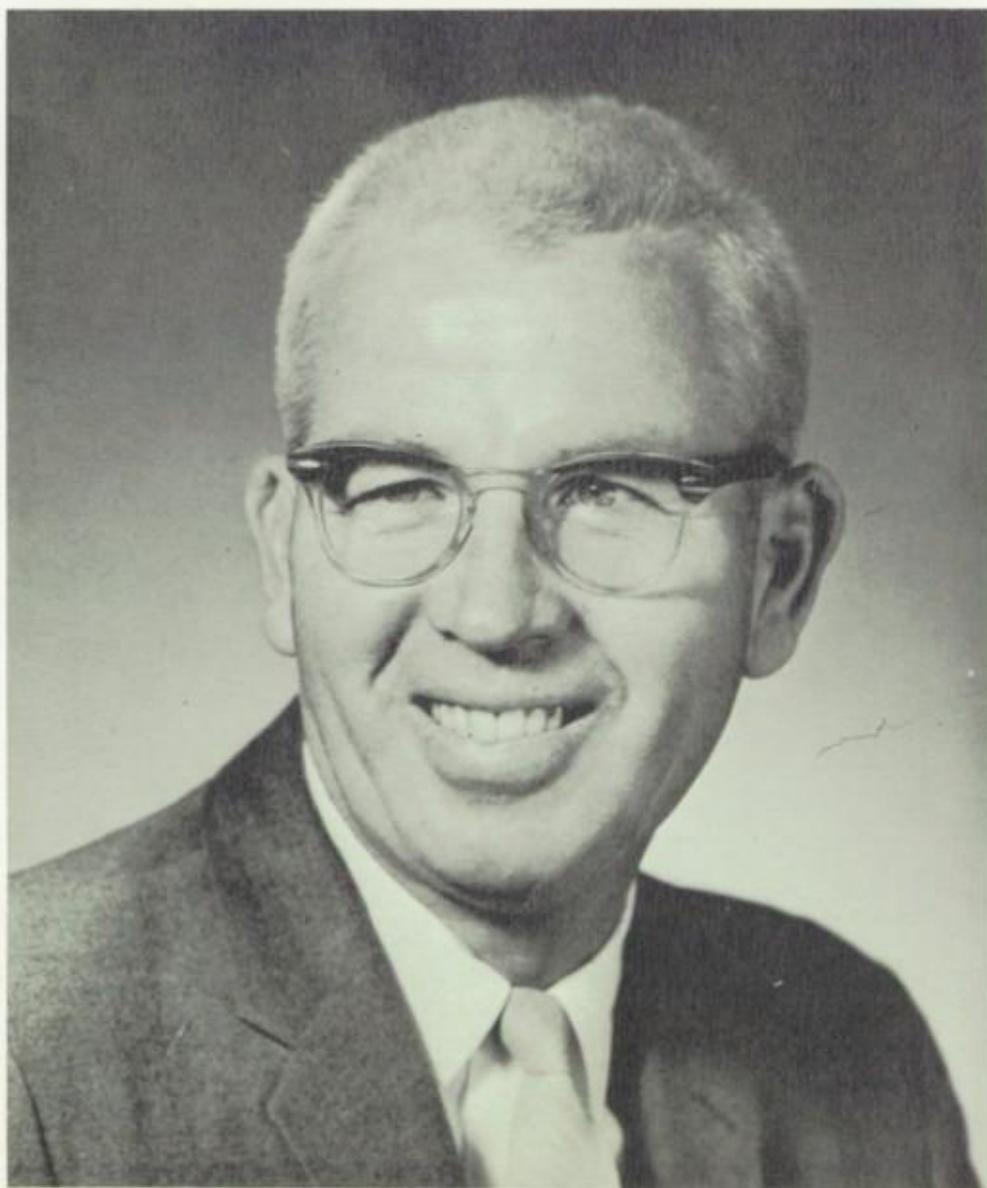

Our America is great because of the unexcelled educational opportunities made available to all who really desire them. You are now on the threshold of full adult responsibility. Make your decisions wisely.

May you find personal satisfaction, success, and happiness in whatever educational or vocational choices you make for the coming years.

The A.F.S. is an international organization to promote friendship and understanding between nations. Our local A.F.S. sponsors after school sales, dances, and concession stands to raise money for the exchange of students. This year Mission Bay was host to an A.F.S. exchange student, Katri Lisitzin, from Finland. Mission Bay's own Debby Rosenblatt also participated in the exchange program during the summer, spending a few months in the Philippines. Each year two A.F.S. finalists are chosen from Mission Bay to take part in the exchange program. This year the finalists were Shelly Black and Nancy Reifel. This club makes a major contribution to the student life at Mission Bay.

CSF

The California Scholarship Federation began approximately fifty years ago to recognize students with high academic achievement. Its motto is "Scholarships for Service." The Mission Bay chapter began the year the school was built, 1953. It sponsors academic activities and sales. Each year one member is awarded a scholarship. Those students who are life members receive special seals of recognition on their diplomas.
